2. Author information: name, surname, and patronymic (initials), place of work, locality, country, e-mail and ORCID. The interval before the block is 0 pts, after - 12 pts.
3. Title of the article with left justification (font - TNR 14, bold, interval after -12 pts).
4. Abstract (one paragraph, 250-300 words) – full justification, structured (according to the logic of the material description in the article). It should contain the following elements: purpose, theoretical basis, originality, conclusions. The abstract should not repeat the text of the article itself, as well as its title, reference and abbreviation. Font TNR 10 pts. Interval after - 0 pts. The abstract should be in Ukrainian, Russian and English language

5. Key words (6-10 separate words and/or several phrases) with full justification. Key words: are given in italics in the front of the list. Separating character is a semicolon, at the end of the list there is no point (the font TNR 10, the interval after - 12 pts).
6. The text of the article should be structured and have the following elements: introduction, purpose, main material, originality, conclusions. The text of the manuscript is placed with full justification.
7. References – transliterated list of literature (in Latin letters) in alphabetical order; APA style (headline - TNR 11 pts, capital letters).
8. List of reference links (bibliographic description of the sources used in the article, in the original language), is drawn up in accordance with the standard "DSTU 7.1: 2006. System of standards for information, library services and publishing. Bibliographic record. Bibliographic description. General requirements and rules of drafting", from 01.07.2007. WARNING! The order of descriptions is presented according to the order presented in References (without numbering). Title - TNR 11 pts, capital letters;
9. Block in Ukrainian (for Russian-language article) or in Russian (for Ukrainian-language one) - the format meets the requirements for the article format: a full list of authors; information about authors; article title; abstract; key words. For non-Ukrainian authors translation of the article title, author information, abstract and key words into Ukrainian and Russian is not mandatory.
10. Blocks in English and Latin - the format meets the requirements for the article format: a full list of authors; information about authors; article title; abstract; key words.
- II. Information about reviewer - *The anonymous review is provided by the editorial staff.

More about the elements of the article:

- Introduction: the relevance of the research, problem definition in general terms and its relevance to important scientific or practical tasks. Research originality substantiation using exploration of the problem based on the analysis of reference links with the obligatory consideration of recent publications in foreign philosophical literature (3-4 years ago) with quotations and references in which was initiated or continued the problem solution emphasizing previously unresolved parts;
- Purpose with the definition of the research task;
- Main material: the theoretical basis and full substantiation of the obtained new scientific results;
- Originality contains theoretical data, new approaches obtained during material comprehension and new solution to the problem, which is a significant step forward as compared to the previous studies;
- Conclusions: brief summary of the study results and prospects for further exploration.

Reference links in the text

Reference links in the text should correspond to the APA style and should have the following form: (Khmil, 2015) or (Malivskiy & Neill, 2014; Poliuha, 2017), or (Slobodian & Yakovyna, 2016, p. 58) if it is a quotation.

Example of reference links in the text of the article in Ukrainian:

На переконання французького філософа Жан-Люка Марйона (Marion, 1999) "Декарт залишається одним із наших найближчих сучасників" (р. 352).

Example of reference links in the text of the article in English:

According to the French philosopher Jean-Luc Marion (1999, p. 352) "Descartes remains one of our closest contemporaries".

Example of block quotation (double spacing):

В історії філософії найбільш цікавим моментом є повне зникнення картезіанського першого поняття природи – природи не як даної в досвіді тотальності, а як теоретичної моделі; нарешті сам Декарт знаходить його непривабливим, скоріше всього тому, що воно не дозволяє досягнути цілісності філософії. (Verbeek, 2000, p. 162)

Requirements for the References and List of Reference Links

- volume – 7-15 sources (except review articles), issued in accordance with the APA standard in References and DSTU 7.1: 2006 in the List of Reference Links (see Appendix 1);
- most sources should reflect the current state of scientific research and be no older than 3-4 years;
- not more than 20% of self-citations per author is allowed;
- availability of at least 3 sources in Latin (articles from foreign journals with a high index of influence not older than 3-4 years and basic monographs)
- all sources should have DOI, digital object identifier (excepting the retro publications) given in a space after the bibliographic description of the source. DOI publications can be found at <http://www.crossref.org>;
- according to the requirements of influential journals indexed by SCOPUS and Web of Science, REFERENCES should include a full list of authors for each reference source (as opposed to the domestic DSTU).

According to the recommendations of the international citation databases, the article bibliography should have the core of sources influencing development of a particular branch of science (the core is a small part of the general list).

Note that in the References, consisting of descriptions of original English-language and/or transliterated Latin sources, and the List of Reference Links (Cyrillic), the order and number of sources coincide and remain unchanged.

WARNING! One can prepare a bibliographic description according to the APA style using online automatic linking website: Citation Machine (<http://www.citationmachine.net/apa/cite-a-book>); <http://www.bibme.org/apa/book-citation/manual> or other.

The Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine dated January 27, 2010 no. 55 "On Structuring the Transliteration of the Ukrainian Alphabet by Latin" approves the official transliteration of the Ukrainian alphabet in Latin. It establishes the transliteration rules of names and surnames of Ukrainian citizens by Latin in foreign passports. On-line transliterator - <http://translit.kh.ua/?passport>.

For the Russian language: one should transliterate according to the requirements of the order of the Federal Migration Service of Russia as of February 3, 2010, no. 26. Online Transliterator: - Transliteration in Russian (<http://ru.translit.net/?account=zagranpasport>).

If the domestic journal has a parallel English version, use the translated article name and the corresponding journal name.

If the domestic journal is translated into English, use the English version of the journal name and article. Indicate the pages of the translated version of the journal.
